30,000 VOICES

And Many are the Voices of Norway People.

Thirty thousand voices—What a grand chorus! And that's the number of American men and women, who are publicly praising Doan's Kidney Pills for relief from backache, kidney and bladder ills. They say it to friends. They tell it in the home papers. Norway people are in this chorus.

Here's a Norway case:

"I know of no other remedy as good as Doan's Kidney Pills," says M. M. Kilgore, of Danforth St., Norway. "I had backache and rheumatic pain for more than a year. My kidneys were the cause of the trouble. Sometimes I was so lame I could hardly stand. I did not rest much and was feeling miserable when I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I got them at Stone's Drug Store and a few boxes cured me."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Kilgore had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. 6-7

Recollections of Early Settlers of Greenwood
 By PROF. A. E. VERRILL of Yale University
 More Herrick Families.
 The Greenwood Herricks all appear to be descendants of Joseph Herrick of Gloucester, Mass., born in 1750, and died in 1842, aged 92 years. His wife was Tryphosa Groves.
 Perhaps all are also descendants of his son, John Grover Herrick, who moved from Gloucester, Mass., to Minot, Me., about 1772, and Elizabeth (Bray) Herrick, of Gloucester, who was born in 1755 and died in 1842. He was married in 1772. He had a family of ten children.
 Among his sons were two who moved from Minot to Greenwood, and settled on Patch Mountain, about 1810.
 These were Joseph, born in 1773, and Israel, born in 1780. I know little more about Israel than the facts that his farm adjoined that of Elder Estes and that he gave half of the land for the graveyard, between the farms. Whether he left descendants, I do not know.
 Joseph Herrick, eldest son of John G., was certainly the ancestor of the Herrick families that I know in Greenwood. He was mentioned in Article No. 20. He was born in 1773, and died in 1831, aged 58 years. He married, in 1796, Lydia Safford of Minot. I remember her, as a very old appearing, but a very lively and cheerful little woman, when I was a small boy. She died in 1854, aged about 77 years. The neighbors all called her "Aunt Lydia."
 Joseph and Lydia Herrick had five children at least, that grew up. These were Joseph Jr., born in 1799, died in 1849; Benjamin, born in 1801; Jacob, born in 1807; Almira, born in 1813, died in 1838; and Henry, born in 1818.
 Joseph, Jr., the eldest son, was often called Captain Joseph, because he had been the Captain of a militia company. He married Jennette Seave, in 1824, and had two children, viz.: Willard, born in 1825; and Almira, born in 1834, who married Isaac Noyes of Greenwood, and had five children.
 Willard Herrick was at sundry times chosen chairman of the selectmen; member of the school committee, etc. His farm was near the main Patch Mountain road, not far from the I. P. Furlong farm.
 Benjamin Herrick, second son of Joseph, was mentioned with most of his family, in Article No. 20. He was married in 1826 and died in 1856. They had eleven children, but some died young. Several merit more detailed notice than given in No. 20.
 Judge Addison E. Herrick, sixth child of Benjamin and Maria (Garland) Herrick, was born in 1846, in Greenwood. He married Mary D. Chase, of Bethel, in 1882. He graduated from Bowdoin College in 1873.
 He taught school at Farmington, Me., in 1877, and was principal of the Academy at Bluehill, Me., for three years. He was admitted to the bar in 1877, and was practicing law in 1881, at Bethel, in partnership with Enoch Foster, and since 1890, in the firm of Herrick and Park. He has been treasurer of the Bethel Savings Bank, and the Bethel Water Co., and since 1899, a member of the firm of Kell and Herrick, dealers in timber lands.
 He was a member of the Maine House of Representatives in 1891, and of the Senate in 1893. He has been Judge of the Probate Court of Oxford County, since 1898; and Overseer of Bowdoin College, since 1906; and a member of the board for examination of applicants for admission to the bar, since 1903.
 Abner H., third son of Benjamin, was born in 1831. He served in the Civil War as Sergeant in Co. E, 5th Maine Volunteers. He had eight children.
 Albert Shaw Herrick, M. D., fifth child of Benjamin and Maria, was born in 1844, and died in 1882. In 1874, he married one of my cousins, Maggie Richards, daughter of Horace Richards and Ann (Hilborn) Richards, formerly of Portland, Me. He graduated from the Medical College of Dartmouth, in 1872, and resided at one time in Boston. He was also a veteran of the Civil War.
 Harriet, a daughter of Benjamin Herrick, who married Lyman R. Martin, as mentioned in No. 20, had six children.
 Henry Herrick, fifth child of Joseph, born in 1818, married Ruth Leach in 1839. They had fifteen children. He settled on Patch Mountain. He served in the army in the Civil War.
 I have been told that after the death of my grandfather Verrill, in 1852, he occupied that farm until his own death. Joseph L., one of his sons, born in 1845, died in the service, in the Civil War, in 1864.
 His daughter, Eliza C., who married Ira Cordwell, was previously mentioned in No. 11. She was born in 1839 and died in 1865.

Guard Children Against Worms.
 There is really very little excuse for sickness if proper care is taken to guard against disease. Worms are one of the most dreaded diseases of children.
 Signs of worms are: De-ranged stomach, swollen upper lip, sour stomach, offensive breath, hard and full belly with occasional gripings and pains about the navel, pale face of leaden tint, eyes heavy, itching of the nose, itching of the rectum, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, little red points sticking out on tongue, starting during sleep, slow fever.
 Dr. True's Elixir, the Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, will surely and quickly expel worms. Good for adults also. At all dealers, 35c, 50c and $1.00. Advice free. Special treatment for tapeworms. Send for book.

WEST PARIS SUICIDE ATTEMPT.
 Amos Buck Tried to End His Life.
 The community of West Paris was shocked Friday on learning that Amos Buck, man about 50 years of age, had been shot in the head.
 The bullet, which was from a 22 revolver, entered the forehead, penetrating the skin but not through the bone, and plowed its way to the right side of the head where it came out again and clipped the top of the man's right ear. After its destructive work about Buck's head, the bullet continued its way to the ceiling of the room and buried itself in the plaster.
 The weapon used was owned by De-forest Estes, in whose house Buck boarded.
 Buck bled very badly. There was a great pool of blood on the floor and the covering of the bed was covered with blood. The revolver was found in the corner of the room about 10 feet from the man's head.
 Buck came to the Estes house Christmas day from Paris Hill. He has since ate his breakfast with Mr. and Mrs. Estes apparently in a happy frame of mind. Mr. Estes called Mr. Buck to come to dinner at noon but Buck did not answer. According to Estes' story he thought Buck was asleep or cranky and didn't want to answer so he did not disturb him. About 4 p. m. Thursday when Mrs. Estes was in the little parlor below she says she heard two or three shots fired. DeForest Estes, her husband, was not in the house at the time. His cousin, Buck on the bed with the stairs and found Buck on the floor and the revolver in a corner fully ten feet from Buck's head.
 He was taken to the C. M. G. hospital for treatment and he will probably recover. It is reported that Buck has told that he was shot by a West Paris party.

 An extra hard day's work may tire you. But if the close of every day finds you worn and weary—your system needs a TONIC.
 "L. F." Atwood's Medicine taken daily, drives away that "tired feeling." It has helped New England folks earn the name of being "tireless workers," and Mrs. Brown's letter tells why it has become their favorite tonic.

 More Herrick Families.
 The Greenwood Herricks all appear to be descendants of Joseph Herrick of Gloucester, Mass., born in 1750, and died in 1842, aged 92 years. His wife was Tryphosa Groves.
 Perhaps all are also descendants of his son, John Grover Herrick, who moved from Gloucester, Mass., to Minot, Me., about 1772, and Elizabeth (Bray) Herrick, of Gloucester, who was born in 1755 and died in 1842. He was married in 1772. He had a family of ten children.
 Among his sons were two who moved from Minot to Greenwood, and settled on Patch Mountain, about 1810.
 These were Joseph, born in 1773, and Israel, born in 1780. I know little more about Israel than the facts that his farm adjoined that of Elder Estes and that he gave half of the land for the graveyard, between the farms. Whether he left descendants, I do not know.
 Joseph Herrick, eldest son of John G., was certainly the ancestor of the Herrick families that I know in Greenwood. He was mentioned in Article No. 20. ## THE DAVIS MURDER.

Prescott Pratt Committed to Jail to Await the March Term of Court.

The Pratt hearing in the Davis murder case, which was postponed from Thursday until Friday, was held at the Norway

Municipal Court Room, at 10 o'clock,

Friday morning. The Municipal Court

Room was packed long before the hour

set for trial and the hall held a large number of spectators.

At the trial County Attorney Albert

Belliveau of Rumford conducted the case for the State and Alton C. Wheeler and Harry L. Webber of Lewiston were the attorneys for the defendant.

The first witness called to the stand by the County attorney was jailer, John

W. Titus of South Paris. Mr. Titus testified that he was summoned to go to the Pratt place on Jan. 26th, that there was a body under the barn at the Pratt place. This was told him by Mrs. Clara

Cutting. Mrs. Cutting came up to him on the street that morning and said,

"You are just the man I am looking for." "What," said Mr. Titus,

"another drunk?" "No," replied the woman, "worse than that, there is a dead body under the barn," to which remark Mr. Titus promptly said, "I don't believe it." She insisted it was so and

Mr. Titus went to the store of Sheriff W.

O. Frothingham and they went to the Pratt place and found the body as represented.

The body had to be chopped out of the ice and dirt and put up through a small trap door onto the barn floor. One pair's pocket was turned inside out, the clothes were of good quality, the suit was blue, light in weight, he wore a blue mackinaw with belt, and had a pair of light weight kid gloves on his hands but on his feet. His shoes were new and had rubber heels. The body was not removed until the arrival of the Coroner's jury and was badly decomposed.

An investigation of the premises immediately disclosed blood stains around the floor of the barn and a blood stained sheet or automobile covering. Several empty cartridges were found, also one loaded cartridge.

In the meantime Mrs. Cutting had moved her trunk to her home and Jailer

Titus arrested Prescott Pratt on the Gothic street railroad crossing. He was driving a team at the time for Gus Kenney.

A New Story Comes to Light.

In being asked concerning the conversation of Mr. Titus with Pratt, and the story comes to light. Pratt told Mr.

Titus that he met Davis in September

at West Bethel and Davis drove his auto to his home in South Paris. On the way they picked up a third party. This party was a young man about 24 years old.

The car was put into the barn and the three men went into the house. Here the third man, who Pratt did not know,

had some liquor, two quart bottles and a half pint of other liquors. Pratt told that he took two swallows and very soon began to get sleepy. He continued to get sleepy and went to bed leaving Davis and the other man in the kitchen. The next morning he was sick and went to the barn and there he found the dead body of Davis, and feeling too sick to do any thing, he went back into the house. The next day he went out and rolled it into the barn cellar, then went and covered it over with the heavy canvas.

Pratt did not know much about the third man only that he was about 24

years old.

Pratt took the automobile to the Edwards garage in Auburn where he traded it.

Dr. H. L. Bartlett of Norway, medical examiner for Oxford County, was called and testified that he examined the body and held an autopsy at the Thayer Undertaking rooms. He said he found the body badly decomposed. Death was due to bullet wounds in the head. He produced several bullets and shells that were found around the premises. He stated that there were no other injuries to the body as far as he could detect.

Dr. S. Jones of South Paris, undertaker, witnessed that the clothes were frozen to the body and could not be removed whole, part had to be cut off. In the pockets he found some postal cards, letters and an insurance license, and insurance papers, a few dice and matches. There was a piece of leather similar to a watch fob, was found, but no watch, rings or money. The clothes were good quality but in bad condition and were not burned, but the County attorney requested that they be held for further examination.

The foregoing statements of Jailer Titus and with a few questions asked and the dead man's clothing, the trial was closed.

Judge Jones, whom the trial was before, committed the defendant, Prescott

Pratt, to jail without bail for the March term of the Supreme Court.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Com-
